

REFORMING FREE

Golden Rule Warden Osborne Opens an Office.Believes There Are No Bad Men in the World.

DR. WAITE IN CLASS BY SELF

In Death Cell Dentist Writes Poetry and Reads Bible.Women Fawn Affection on Mur-derer; One, a Soulmate.New York, Oct. 18.—Out as "honor system" warden of Sing Sing, Thomas Mott Osborne, is established in New York today as exulting engineer on prison reform to any penal institution in the world. Services free."I am still convinced that there are no bad men in the world," said Osborne today. "I am sure my method is right. Some day it will be the only one in use.""Do you think," Osborne was asked, that Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, who confessed to murdering his wife's parent, is a good man, or is he bad, inherently criminal and vicious?""I think Dr. Waite is insane," said the warden. "Not violently insane but sexually abnormal. He has control over his mental processes, but his mind is so warped and distorted thathis murdering his father and mother-in-law by poison is not surprising.
"I have studied Waite in the death house at Sing Sing. His predominant characteristics are excessive self-centering, utter selfishness and extreme sensuousness."Can't Redeem Dr. Waite.
"Do you think a man like Waite can be redeemed?"
"No. But that means nothing.
Waite is one of his kind in a generation. He is unique. He is not even a type.""But Waite is under sentence of death," I suggested. "Do you think he should die in the electric chair as he has been condemned to die?"
"No, I would not kill Waite. I would not kill anybody. Waite should be locked up for life, I think.""In solitary?" "No. He should be permitted to mix with the other men in prison. He will always be as he has been, and is now, but he should not be executed.""What does he say about himself now that he has been in the death house several months?"
"He says what I very seriously doubt, that he has had a change of heart. He writes poetry. Oh, awful poetry. And he reads the Bible. Poor fellow, I believe he thinks he is having a fine time. Just as he had them when he was racing up and down Broadway in an auto and pretending to perform delicate operations at hospitals."Many Feminine Admirers.
"He still has his feminine admirers.
You would be astounded at the number and sort of women who write to him. You should see the line of rush that some of them send him to which he replies in kind. One woman has discovered that she is his soul mate.""But Waite's case stands alone. In all but these exceedingly rare instances, the honor system is an absolute success. We have reduced the form to fundamentals now and hereafter I shall hold myself in readinessto help establish the system wherever it is asked. All I demand is that the head of the big institution be in sympathy with the idea. I expect also to further the work by reducing some of my lectures and other data to text book form."Wilson Trips West Speeches and Handshaking Informally En Route—In Chicago Tomorrow.Long Branch, Oct. 18.—With election day less than three weeks off, President Wilson's program for today called for the start of third campaign trip into the middle west. Thru three speeches in Chicago and handshaking from his private car at more than a score of towns and cities in New York, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana, he expects to reach many thousands voters during his brief absence from Shadow Lawn.The president's departure from Long Branch was made at 11:05 o'clock this morning, to arrive in New York City at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, and his departure from New York at 1 o'clock. Nine brief stops in New York state were to be made during the afternoon and evening.
From New York City the trip is to be made in a private car, attached to a regular train.During the journey the president expects to work on the speech he will make here October 28 at the celebration of "Woodrow Wilson day." The message contained in this speech will be sent out in advance and read at Wilson meetings now being arranged in various parts of the country. Mrs.
Wilson, Secretary Tumulty and Dr.
Cary T. Grayson, the White House physician, accompanied Mr. Wilson on the trip.

WOULD BRING WAR

McAdoo Scores Policy Advanced by Colonel Roosevelt.Only Definite Thing Stated, Says Treasury Secretary.

WALL STREET RULES PARTY

Republican Victory Would Endanger Nation's Prosperity.McAdoo Praises Wilson's Actions in Chicago Speech.Chicago, Oct. 18.—Praise for President Wilson's diplomatic and legislative achievements and charges that "Wall street has always dominated the Republican party" and that victory for that party next month would endanger the country's prosperity were voiced here today in an address by William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury."The American people are being asked to put in peril the peace and prosperity of the country," he said.
treasury."For two months they have condemned every act of the Democratic administration in the most unfair anduntruthful manner but the American people are still without a definite answer from Mr. Hughes as to what they will do with the government if they get possession of it."The only definite thing we have had in the campaigning came from Colonel Roosevelt, who said at Battle Creek, discussing the Lusitania:
"You know what I would have done. I would have seized every interned German ship."Mr. McAdoo then quoted Germany's declaration of war on Portugal because of seizure of German ships by that country and added:
"Would Have Brought War.""Mr. Roosevelt's action would have resulted in war between the United States and Germany. Now comes Mr.
Hughes and admits as far as he is ever definite, his accord with the believe attitude of Mr. Roosevelt. This is shown by his reply at Louisville to the question as to what he would have done in the Lusitania case. He said in effect that he would have seized the Lusitania would never have been sunk.
This is characteristic evasion for Mr.
Hughes, who said that he would have done after the Lusitania had been sunk. I challenge him to answer that question.""Who can doubt that, if Mr. Hughes is made president Mr. Roosevelt will be the dominating influence and direct our foreign and domestic policies."Taking up domestic affairs Mr. Mc-Adoo said that the Democratic administration had destroyed the system by which "the reserve money of the banks of the country were concentrated principally in New York City.""The demand of Wall street for a central bank will be satisfied if the Republicans gain control of the government," he added.The secretary said if Mr. Hughes stands by his party platform he must either repeal or substitute something for "the farm loan law." He argued that the Roosevelt panic of 1907, the worst in our history, was caused by proof of Republican incompetency, and added that "our virile, rich, unmanned and highly developed people" need nothing but the competition of stricken and broken Europe" after the war.He continued that even if we are endangered, the creation of a non-partisan tariff board and the enactment of anti-dumping and unfair competition laws by the Democratic congress have already provided means "to protect legitimate interest against hurtful combinations against us."

WILL STAY IN MEXICO

Conference at Standstill Awaiting Capture of Bandit Leader.Atlantic City, Oct. 18.—The Mexican peace commission will simply mark time until after election day. This prophesy is voiced by American owners of Mexico properties who have been in consultation with both the American and Mexican delegates."No definite conclusion can be reached before November 7," said one American. "General Carranza has used up the conference indefinitely with his latest promise to 'destroy' or 'isolate' Villa. Even the Mexicans admit the task will be extremely difficult and will involve numerous delays.
And until Carranza keeps his word and conquers his rival, the American troops will remain in Mexico and the Mexican problem will continue to be as much of a problem as ever."It also became known today the war department has received advice which indicates Carranza may not dare approach too close to Villa. Carranza troops have been sent into Chihuahua against Villa are reported to have deserted to the bandit's standard. Because of the rapidly deprecating Carranza campaign, the first chief is said to find it impossible to pay his soldiers more than a pittance.
As a result, mutinies in the Carranza ranks have become more and more frequent.

SUNDAY FIGHTS BOOZE

Evangelist Will Help Drys Win Election in Michigan.Detroit, Oct. 18.—Egalizing in interest, if not overhauling the approaching presidential and governmental election in Michigan is the question of state-wide prohibition which the people will vote upon early in November. The Michigan anti-saloon league and the Michigan Home Rule league have mustered their forces for the battle with great preparation and poignant and forceful arguments are reverberating thruout the commonwealth today.One of the leading factors in the "dry" fighting force is the Rev. Billy Sunday, who is conducting an evangelical campaign in Detroit. His vicious utterances in Detroit have spurred the advocates of home rule to quicken their efforts. "I helped to make Colorado dry and I will help Michigan into the dry column in November," said Mr. Sunday in a sermon in the big tabernacle last night.
"I believe that any church members who are unwilling to throw out the cards and the booze, even though they know they will make their sons gamblers and drunkards.""If I had my way, I'd have every pack of cards on earth and every drop of beer in hell before midnight." Michigan has not been legally dry since 1875. For twenty years preceding that year a state law prohibited the sale of liquor, but the system was defective. About the middle of the century the state wide prohibition amendment next month. It will become effective in April, 1917.

Sporting says it learns from an authorized source that Captain Boelke, the celebrated German aviator has been severely wounded by a shell from a French anti-aircraft gun. On October 17, Boelke was shot down by his thirtieth enemy allied machine.

WEST FOR HUGHES

Hitchcock Reports on the Certain and Doubtful States.Missouri and Kentucky Are Claimed by Republicans.New York, Oct. 18.—Frank H.
Hitchcock, just back from his fourth tour of the west, submitted this report to Chairman Wilcox, of the Republican national committee:Surely Republican: Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Utah and Idaho.
Probably Republican: Indiana, the Dakotas, Michigan, California, Oregon and Washington.Doubtful: Ohio, Missouri, Kentucky, Montana, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado.
Mr. Hitchcock urged Chairman Wilcox and later Colonel Roosevelt to make a great drive for Ohio, Missouri, Kentucky, and for United States senators in Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Nebraska and Arizona. The colonel, who started on his second tour, agreed to conform with Mr. Hitchcock's advice.West Generally Certain.
A. T. Hort, manager of western headquarters, made this report:Mr. Hughes will carry all of the normally Republican states within the jurisdiction of Chicago headquarters. He will break into the column of normally Democratic states, notably with Missouri and Kentucky."There is no doubt about the outcome in the west. Generally, Mr.
Hughes will carry every Republican state beyond all question. He has made a wonderful campaign and is being loyally supported all along the line and the state organizations are doing splendid work. I have no reservation in saying that the west is for Hughes.""There has been a good deal of talk of this or that state being doubtful.
Wisconsin is one that has had a lot of worst. It will be carried by Mr.
Hughes. Senator LaFollette will be re-elected and so will Governor Phillips."Indiana Republican.
"Indiana is certainly Republican.
Illinois and other big western states have had considerable advertising as well as votes. They are not doubtful now, never have been and never will be.""Missouri is going Republican. She will have another 'mysterious stranger' alongside, Kentucky. Keep your eye on those two states when the votes are counted."

BREED FOR QUALITY

Undesired Child Makes Undesirable Citizen Says Birth Control Advocate.New York, Oct. 18.—The "undesired child too often makes an undesirable citizen. Let us breed for quality, not for quantity."In these words Frederick A. Blossom, president of the Birth Control league of Ohio and editor of "The Birth Control Review," addressed the Men's club of the Second Unitarian church, Brooklyn. He continued:
"The limitation of offspring is not only a right but a duty. With every marriage license the government should issue a pamphlet instructing parents in this important matter. The time will soon come when a woman can go to a dispensary and get an operation to prevent pregnancy as easily and as safely as she can now go and learn how to modify her baby's milk."Mr. Blossom asserted that the birth control movement was sweeping the country from coast to coast. Twenty leagues, he said, were already in active operation and others were about to be organized.DRINK WATER TO AVOID SICKNESS

SAYS AUTHORITY

Glass of hot water before breakfast daily keeps the doctor away.Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headaches, stuffy from a cold, flat tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can instead feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.
The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sticky complexions are urged to get a quarter round of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crack on the subject of internal sanitation.—Advertisement.
